Editorial

Given my background as a photographer, I hope you'll forgive me for so many pages of snaps from the recent Michaelmas Fayre...a picture's worth a thousand words and all that. (If you would like a digital copy of any of the pics, let me know.) As to the Fayre itself....well the usual massive big-ups to the organisers - a mammoth task - which was rewarded with a pretty good turnout, and I'm sure a splendid sum raised.

The weather could have been worse - remember last year? - and it was only in the evening that it turned nasty, getting rather damp in the marquee. When it was time for the live music, the band gamely shifted indoors to play some great botty-kicking stuff, so well done to them too. Nic and her staff did a wonderful job, and big ups must also go to all the prize winners at the Fayre. We here at Global Int. are honoured to have been given permission to publish the winning entry in the Seniors Limerick competition...page 13.

I must mention the East v West 'tug-of-war'....fiercely fought as ever, with West once again the victors. Bulging biceps and tattoos much in evidence, see pic! And finally regarding the Fayre...the Oxford Times saw the short piece on the front of last month's issue about the scarecrow competition, so followed it up with a piece of their own. You'll need to dig around on their website to find it www.oxfordtimes.co.uk Looking forward, this month's W.I.

And more continental fayre on offer at the Senior Citizens on the 28th with a chance to sample delicious French food and drink.

If you're into photography, do check out the article on page 10 re the old soldiers photo exhibition, with details of two workshops for those of you looking to fine tune your portrait skills.

Local photographer's skills will be much in evidence in the Hanney 2020 Calendar that we are producing. Copies will be available from the shop and I hope also at the Xmas Fayres at the Church and the School, both happening in Dec. They will make great Xmas pressies! More details next month.

Film night is not for kiddies, but has a very special Bafta winning guest, giving a Q & A session after the film...page 10.

A Halloween party the next night at the RBL certainly is very child-friendly.

Next month's Strictly Party is a must...see page 11. Not sure about the dude's shirt but he seems happy enough...can't think why!

I have been very remiss in not listing the opportunity for a bit of 'ding dong ping pong' down at the village hall every Thurs eve, starting at 6.30pm. It's run by a gent called Simon Martin, so thank you to him and all who posted on the community Facebook page from where I gathered this info!

Till next month my friends!

The annual 'Sacco and Roy' Memorial Aunt

Sally Match between the Plough and the Black Horse was held on Wednesday 25 September at the Plough.

The weather held off and two teams of 11 turned up with spectators for a great evening. The Plough triumphed this year by 2 legs to 1, thus regaining the trophy!

Thanks to everyone who attended and the very generous contributions to the Anthony Nolan Bone Marrow Trust, raising a grand total of £250.

We finish with a general discussion raised by the group over a cup of tea. Information and Bookings: 07769 875628.

A fine and industrious gent from Charney, one Peter Busby, has arranged a trip for the culture vultures of his Parish to go to London, not to visit the Queen, but rather to see 'White Christmas' the Irving Berlin musical at the Dominion Theatre.

Peter asked me to pass on this message....

"We have 20 'travel-only' tickets on the coach to the West End of London. It leaves Charney Bassett at 10.00 am on Thurs 28th November, and will arrive in the West End of London at about 12.30 pm. It's a perfect spot for some Christmas shopping! We will return at about 5.30 pm, arriving back at Charney, approx 8.30 pm. These travel only tickets are just £10.00 each.

If interested, you need to contact Peter soonest, either by phone - 01235 868520 or email: peterbusby10@gmail.com

Every home in West Hanney has now received notification of the allocated share in our village pub. Those that have confirmed their address have received a voucher for a free drink. The voucher is only valid until 30th November so if you haven't confirmed, please do so asap and get your property's share certificate.

We all know that every property in a village without a pub is worth 10% less than when it has one. A conservatively priced property in West Hanney would be worth about £40,000 less if the pub closed. That seems like a very good reason to me that we all make sure that it doesn't happen. Please support your pub by visiting it and buying a drink, non-alcoholic if that is your preference.

East Hanney Parish Council

East Hanney Parish Council has arranged for a road closure to allow the Remembrance Day parade to pass as smoothly as possible on Sunday 10th November 2019. The roads closed for the parade will be in both East and West Hanney. The parade will run from the Hanney Royal British Legion in East Hanney to St James the Great in West Hanney. The full list of road closures is:

Mill Orchard – Brookside – The Causeway – School Road – The Green – Church Street.

The roads will be closed for the duration of the parade to and from the Church but will be open in between, with closures being from 10:30am to 11:30am and 12:15pm to 13:15pm (approximately). Should you want to help marshal the route, please contact the RBL Hanney or East Hanney's Clerk.

With road safety in mind, and following the example set by our friends and neighbours in West Hanney, East Hanney PC has decided to install a number of poles on which to site vehicle activated speed indicator devices (SIDs). The plan is to install 5 poles at sites agreed with Oxfordshire County Council and informed by the data the PC and OCC have gathered over recent months. The PC will purchase one SID initially, and apply for grants to enable it to purchase another 2 over the coming year.

It is with pleasure that the PC can announce that a new cricket club will be making the village its home next season. This club will enter the Oxfordshire league and the PC hopes that we will be able to hear the thwack of leather on willow on a regular basis once more. The Council resolved at its October meeting to replace the bollard lights on Brookside. A wooden bollard will be purchased to replace each. It is hoped that wood will be less affected by canine scent marking and weakening from games of leapfrog, and will be a more attractive feature.

The Council has resolved to alter its meeting dates for the remainder of the Council's year. The dates are as follows: 13th November 2019; 4th December 2019; 15th January 2020; 12th February 2020; 4th March 2020 and 8th April 2020.

All meetings are on Wednesdays and start at 7.30pm.

West Hanney Parish Council

Neighbourhood Plan Consultation Launch – November 1st

I am very pleased to announce that the Parish Council is launching the Public Consultation stage of our Neighbourhood Plan on Friday November 1st. We have completed the development stage working with our consultants, Community First Oxfordshire, and the Vale of White Horse District Council.

It is now time to share our Plan with the community and statutory bodies over a six week period, and for you to give your comments on it. We will publish the Plan and associated documents on the West Hanney PC website:

www.westhanneypc.org.uk on November 1st. All West Hanney residents are invited to download and read the Neighbourhood Plan documents and if you wish to make any comments, please fill in the Consultation Feedback form and return it to npwhpc@gmail.com by 5pm on December 13th 2019. Paper copies of the Plan and the consultation response form will also be available in the Hanney Community Shop. Feedback forms can be returned to the Shop. Please contact your Parish Councillors if you have any questions about the Plan or the consultation process.

The Plan will also be sent to the statutory consultees such as the Vale of White Horse District Council and all responses will be considered for inclusion in the final version.

We will hold a Public meeting in the Hanney War Memorial Hall at 8pm on Monday 11th November so that your Councillors can present the Plan to the residents of West Hanney and answer any questions you may have. We hope you will be able to attend.

Serious Pothole Hazard

Several residents have reported multiple potholes on the section of road to the south of the Green that links School Road to Church Street. They have been informed that Oxfordshire County Council does not own or maintain that section of road and not only will not fix the potholes, but will not pay any compensation for any vehicular damage or personal injury caused by the potholes. The Parish Council do not own that section of road and are not responsible for the repair. We are currently disputing the ownership with OCC and until that is resolved, we advise everyone using that section of road to be aware of the damaged surface and try to use an alternative route.

World War Two Veterans' photographic portraits are on display at the Soldiers of Oxfordshire Museum, Woodstock, until 5th Jan, 2020.

The exhibition, titled '3945 Portraits', is the work of photographer Glyn Dewis. He is leading a project to photograph Second World War veterans from all branches of the armed forces, and from a wide range of different regiments and corps, including the Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry.

Glyn will also be running two '3945 Portraits' project workshops on the 9th November and 7th December between 11am and 2pm. These will demonstrate how the portraits were taken using minimal kit in limited space, creating classic portraits without all the latest and greatest gear. Spaces can be booked on the Museum website: <https://www.sofo.org.uk/>

These days we hear much from folk, young and old, who tell us that the end is nigh, hence the need to start a revolution to save the world. Now, 'science' and I have never been the best of friends, and nor do I possess a crystal ball, so I really don't know if they are right or wrong. What I do know is that this splendid old gent in the pic (no idea who he is) and millions like him, have already saved the world - from the kind of tyranny that we, including our revolutionaries, cannot today imagine. Many had to make much larger sacrifices than parking a boat in Oxford Street, and sticking themselves to things with superglue.

LETTERS

Dear Editor

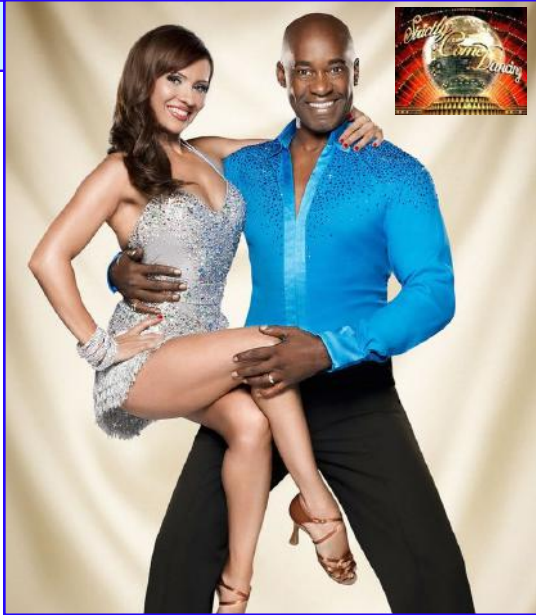

Many thanks to everyone who supported the Macmillan Coffee Morning held in memory of De Blomley on Friday 27th September. Millets Farm let us use the venue free of charge and also donated all the coffee and tea. Together with the donations from those who could not attend and a huge turnout from Hanney residents and their friends, a magnificent sum of £2,050 was raised. Many thanks also to those of you who donated cakes and raffle prizes.

Dear Editor

Thank you to all who came and supported the Strawberry Tea at Hanney Chapel in aid of the charity, Caring for Life. As well as enjoying some delicious cakes, we raised just over £300. Thank you!

Since I took over the helm here at the SS Hanney News I've been keen to include obituaries, so under the umbrella of what we in the business rather irreverently call 'Hatch, Match and Dispatch' - geddit? - I wondered if it would also be nice to include births and marriages. Prompted by the lovely photo on the front cover of the two Dads and their baby daughter, I would now like to introduce this little 'featurette'. So, if you are getting married, or having a baby, or both (!) or know anyone in our community who is, please let me know so we can spread the word and pass on our congrats!

This meeting is open to all lady visitors, and if you're not a member but would like to come along, give Jean Geary a quick ring on 01235 869070 / 07799 766566 or email: jeangeary@hotmail.co.uk

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

Dear Friends

Both the memorials in St James church that commemorate the 1st World War end in 1919 which is 100 years ago. It is also 80 years since the start of the 2nd World War and I hope you have taken the opportunity to look at the excellent exhibition which the Hanney History Group have displayed about Hanney in 1939 in St James Chancel.

As we recall the great sacrifices of both military and civilian personnel during those conflicts and subsequently, we are reminded of how much the peoples of the United Kingdom have contributed to the security, freedom and peace, particularly in Europe as well as the rest of the world.

I am writing this whilst there is still uncertainty about “Brexit” and it is quite likely that, as you read my letter, such uncertainty continues though perhaps in a different form. On top of the divisions which this seems to be causing in the United Kingdom we are facing a variety of other challenges and concerns.

Social Media seems to have the effect of highlighting our different view points, attitudes and responses to life, so more than ever we still require peace. We need a peace that cares for neighbours, encourages prosperity, produces respect for all and allows us to live in harmony even though we are different. May I invite you to read the statement from the House of Bishops which is on the Church of England website and calls us to listen and speak respectfully to everyone, since the teachings of Jesus, challenging us to be generous and humble servants, apply to all, especially our leaders.

Or perhaps you would like to read the Bishop of Oxford’s letter (see Oxford Diocesan website) which includes 12 ways to love your neighbour – a Brexit checklist. His last suggestion is to pray for peace so in your Remembrance why not include a prayer for the wellbeing of our community and country so that the selfless sacrifice of previous generations was not given in vain.

Simpler still, read the beatitude (Matthew 5 : 9)

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God.

May the Lord God bless with his peace

John

Here's the winning entry in the Seniors Limerick competition at the Michaelmas Fayre. I'm sure you'll agree it's positively Byronesque in it's flow, Wordsworthian in it's use of language, with a storyline Bill Shakes himself would have been proud of. Well done to poet Andy Robertson, who, though not a particularly tall man, is certainly a 'Longfellow' in my humble opinion...geddit? Rudyard Kipling can only dream of such pearls as he bakes one of his exceedingly good cakes. Talking of cakes, the W.I. did their stuff again at this year's Fayre with a fab array of delicious baked confectionary...eat your heart out Mary Cherry! Well done to the bakers, servers and washer-upers for all their hard work.

Buzz, Michael and Neil flew the moon,
But they had to get back pretty soon
For a pint at "The Plough"
And they're still drinking now
Till the Michaelmas Fayre afternoon.

Michaelmas Fayre & Feast

So the good news was that the Fayre enjoyed a dry, albeit somewhat cloudy and coolish afternoon, the less good news was that the Feast was almost swept away in a torrential storm!

But despite the vagaries of British weather yet again Hanney did itself proud, with lots of us enjoying an afternoon listening to the Wantage Silver Band, watching the Charlbury Finstock Morris, eating a cream tea, pottering around the stalls and sideshows and being suitably impressed by the winning entries in the competitions on show in the church.

Thank you to everyone who helped in every and any way and to those who simply came along to support the afternoon. A big thank you to Nic in The Black Horse and her team who battled valiantly with the weather and to The Faith Healers who with some swift manoeuvring set themselves up in the corner of the pub and gave us a couple of great sets.

And now – it's time to get you grant applications in if your organisation would like to apply for one – full details are on www.hanneymichaelmasfayre.co.uk/grants/ or email info@hanneymichaelmasfayre.co.uk for more information...open to any Hanney voluntary group, club or similar organisation and are to help make a difference – in other words something new or additional to what you already do.

Thank you - The Fayre & Feast Team - Alec, Helen, Hilary, Monica & Stuart.

Hanney Man wins Hanney 5!

Massive congrats to Jonny Cornish, East Hanney resident and athlete extraordinaire, who won the recent 'Hanney 5 Mile' road running race. He cruised home a full 50 seconds ahead of his nearest rival in an incredible time of just 25 mins and 42 secs! I and my fellow couch potatoes here at Global Int. certainly coughed and spluttered on our Frappuccino's and cinnamon rolls when we read that. Big ups also to all the other local folk who competed.
